Additional Information / Specifications

The primary aim of the course is to provide the student with an understanding of those events of the 20th century that have shaped the current century. A very important secondary aim is to introduce the student to the type of work required in a cegep-level social science course. The student will be responsible for note-taking and additional reading, among other things.

Late work will be penalised at 20% per day. Work is due at the beginning of the period on the due date, or will be subject to penalty.

Course materials will be posted on MS Teams.

The June exam is a school set exam.

The policy on plagiarism found in the RWA Evaluation Policy and the Student Agenda will be rigorously enforced.
